

1 John 2:15-29-Where Are Your Affections?

- My dear children, be careful what you love and be careful who you listen to.
- Everything changes when I know God and am known by God. Jesus is enough yet wants our whole-hearted devotion. Have you taken an inventory of your love for Jesus lately? Will you this week?
- Are you satisfied in your life? Fulfilled? Content? Did you know that whether you are or not has everything to do with your relationship with Jesus and your pursuit of him?
- What I love has the potential to be what I give my devotion to. Have you identified something in your life that you can honestly say you love more than Christ?
- What I give attention to has the power to push me toward or pull me away from Jesus. Time is short, many want to deceive and are deceived. So test the voices. Are you clear enough on your understanding of the gospel and know Christ fully enough to discern lies from God's truth? Where do you find yourself being tripped up by lies?
- Abide in Jesus. Trust his words and ways. You will not have all the answers to all your questions. Have you prayed for the Holy Spirit to fill you lately?
- You have made us for yourself O Lord, and our heart is restless until it rests in you. St. Augustine
