

Questions for week of 1/19

Nehemiah 2:9-20

Once you announce your vision you open it up to discussion and criticism. What is hard for you about receiving feedback?

Nehemiah is very intentional with the timing of making his vision public. Why is timing so important?

What (vision) comes before how (plans / strategy). Which do you struggle with the most?

How can your expectations derail your focus on the vision God is calling you toward?

What God originates, God orchestrates. What keeps us from believing that?

We talked about being clear about the vision? Clarity is important because it gives focus and allows people to know where we are going. What do you struggle with when it comes to being clear about the vision?